

TOVREA CARRARO SOCIETY

DOCENT PROGRAM

VOLUNTEER

TOVREA CASTLE AT CARRARO HEIGHTS

Tovrea Carraro Society Volunteer Docents help support our tour programs at Tovrea Castle at Carraro Heights.

The tour program is designed to educate and enrich tour guests on the history and people tied to the historic Phoenix landmark known as Tovrea Castle. Docents lead guided tours, share interesting facts and tell stories about the Castle, Cactus Gardens and their history.

Training

Our training program prepares you to lead guided tours with confidence. Training consists of one day of classroom work, multiple onsite practice sessions and certification. Certified Expert docents on the Training Team work closely with you and help you navigate through the training process by providing tips and best practices on being a successful docent.

Requirements

- Attend a New Volunteer Orientation
- Enthusiastic and energetic personality
- Learning the history of the Castle
- Learning the tour script
- Operating the tour tram
- Background and fingerprint check
- $30.00 registration fee.*

*The registration fee is used to offset Tovrea Carraro Society's training cost which includes background check, printed materials, use of facilities and lunch and is nonrefundable.
